

Same observations and response scale in every option; density is a descriptive smoothing.