
Each step represents the observed fraction; all 187 samples per target are included.